Pamela Jansson

Pamela commenced voice studies under the guidance of Molly McGurk and then went on to The Academy of Performing Arts in Perth under the direction of Richard Gill. At the Academy she was involved with the Motet Choir with various performances in early music. Pamela has performed in operettas (Gilbert and Sullivan) at His Majesty's Theatre and also studied with Jolanta Nayajek (Australian Opera). Following her move to Sweden she worked with Erik Saedén (Stockholm Opera) and took part in Master Classes under the direction of Kerstin Meyer and Erik Saedén. Later she studied under the guidance of Berle Sanford Rosenberg (Budapest Opera). She continues vocal coaching with acclaimed teacher Prof. Solvig Grippe in Stockholm. She has performed concert and recital work in Perth, the famed Leeuwin Estate, The Lieder Society of WA, Stockholm (Sweden), and Mariefred (Sweden). Pamela was also involved as leading soloist in the company "Baroque to Broadway".
